The screenshot shows the official website of the Armed Forces Reserve Command (AFRC). The page features a navigation menu with various service categories such as 'Recruitment', 'Reserve Services', and 'Legal Services'. A central section displays recent news and announcements. At the bottom, there is a 'Reserve Military Network Service Center' with several service icons. The 'AI Smart Customer Service' icon is highlighted with a red box, and a red arrow points to it with the label '連結' (Link).
